Three Dog Night to take the stage at St. Mary Gala

APPLE VALLEY – June 6, 2008 – St. Mary Hospital Foundation’s annual Gala is set to be one groovy evening for the High Desert. The hippest details of the 1970s are set to make a comeback for one night only, and no one will want to miss a chance to boogie to the fab sounds of Three Dog Night. High Desert Primary Care, Alliance Physicians and Premier Healthcare are sponsoring this year’s dy-no-mite Gala.

From 1969 through 1974, no other group achieved more Top 10 hits, moved more records or sold more concert tickets than Three Dog Night. Three Dog Night’s hits wind through the fabric of pop culture today. Songs like “Mama Told Me (Not To Come),” “Joy to the World,” “Shambala,” “One” and “Black and White” serve to heighten emotions and crystallize Three Dog Night’s continuing popularity.

The Foundation is proud to announce this year’s Gala co-chairs – Bruce Fay of Valley Hi Toyota and Olivia Smith of J. Michaels Salon and Day Spa.

Fay and his wife, Linda, attended the St. Mary Gala prior to moving to the High Desert in 2001. The Gala served as their introduction to the community and assisted in making their decision to move to the area. Bruce truly believes that being involved in the community is important and can make a difference.

Smith and her family have lived in the High Desert for 15 years, and she and her husband, Scott, have owned the successful salon and spa for nine years. Smith believes strongly in the importance of giving back to the community and is excited to be a co-chair of this year’s Gala.

The 17th annual Foundation Gala begins at 5:30 p.m. on Oct. 11 at the San Bernardino County Fairgrounds. Proceeds from the Gala will benefit the overall future expansion of St. Mary Medical Center. Tickets are $225 a person. Tables with seating for eight people are available for $1,800 to $2,200, depending on table location and advertising space reserved in the Gala program.
